PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Revenue and go-to-market operator with eight years of full-cycle B2B, media, and enterprise technology sales, now pairing an individual quota with board-level strategy work for an AI start-up. Wins net-new business from cold — Fortune 500 accounts at TEKsystems, NFL and MLB team partnerships today — by qualifying on the budget that can actually fund a buy and building the CPM, CPA, and unit-economics case a client's finance team can defend. Coaches sellers against daily process and 1:1 metrics, designs the operating cadence a team runs on, and uses Claude and OpenAI models daily to compress research, account mapping, and proposal cycles.
